BIOGRAPHY

Jamie Cochrane is general manager of Bechtel Oil, Gas & Chemicals' Petrochemicals business line.

Previously Cochrane was LNG operations manager, with operational responsibility for LNG prospects and projects other than in Australia.

Prior to that assignment, Cochrane held several functional and project positions of increasing responsibility since joining Bechtel in 1991 as a project cost accountant in the London office. He was senior project manager for the BP West Nile Delta Onshore Gas Project in Egypt. He also was manager of the London execution unit for Oil, Gas & Chemicals.

He was elected a principal vice president in 2010.

Cochrane holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honors) degree in finance from Nottingham Trent

Bechtel is one of the most respected global engineering, construction, and project management companies. Together with our customers, we deliver landmark projects that foster long-term progress and economic growth. Since 1898, we've completed more than 25,000 extraordinary projects across 160 countries on all seven continents. We operate through four global businesses: Infrastructure; Nuclear, Security & Environmental; Oil, Gas & Chemicals; and Mining & Metals. Our company and our culture are built on more than a century of leadership and a relentless adherence to our values, the core of which are safety, quality, ethics, and integrity. These values are what we believe, what we expect, what we deliver, and what we live.
