

USAID Iraq Infrastructure Reconstruction Program

Prime Contract EEE-C-00-03-00018-00
Capital Construction

Conference agenda

Contractor-Supplier Conference

Introductory Remarks

Bob Ragan Bechtel, Manager of Washington Office
Washington, D.C. Conference

Tim Beans USAID, Director of Procurement
Washington, D.C. Conference

Lindsey Holbrook, Bechtel Representative
London Conference

TBA

Kuwait Conference

Safety Message and Program Overview

Cliff Mumm Bechtel, Chief of Party

Acquisition Process

Tom Elkins Bechtel, Acquisition Services Manager

Questions and Answers

Bechtel Staff

Program mission and goals

USAID's mandate

“... rebuild infrastructure and public facilities and services in a post-war Iraq”

USAID's goal

“... provide tangible evidence to the people of Iraq that the country is given the opportunity to prosper”

Mission-specifics

“... provide resources and technical expertise to rebuild potable water and wastewater treatment facilities, schools and health facilities; seaport and airports, the electrical power system. Roads and bridges, railroad infrastructure, solid waste management, irrigation systems and selected buildings”

Priority medium-term objective

Institutional strengthening and self-sufficiency

Program overview

Contractor-Supplier Conference

On the ground in Iraq

Contractor-Supplier Conference

- Security and self-sufficiency
- Scope of work
- Program description
- Subcontracting approach
- Progress to date
- Integration with Iraq capability

